State water managers have scheduled a public meeting on Wednesday, July 20 to discuss with area residents scientific ground water studies planned for the area, the Idaho Department of Water Resources announced today.

The 2005 Idaho Legislature appropriated $450,000 to IDWR to support studies to help address ongoing ground water supply issues in the Palouse Basin.

The meeting will be held at the Moscow City Council Chambers, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. at 206 East Third Street, Moscow.

IDWR staff will discuss the study proposals, and the funding allocation. The public is invited to provide comment.

For more information about the meeting, contact Helen Harrington at (208) 287-4848, or by e-mail at helen.harrington@idwr.idaho.gov

The meeting will be conducted in a facility that meets the accessibility requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Anyone requiring special accommodations to attend, participate in, or understand the meeting, should contact Harrington in advance so arrangements can be made.
